

Chiropractic Cervical Adjustments Are Safe

Recent studies have lifted the stigma of the risk of stroke previously and erroneously associated with chiropractic cervical adjustments. For a list of references and a good synopsis of these studies and what they indicate, take a look at Dr. Anthony Rosner's article in Dynamic Chiropractic. In his words, "the issue of stroke now needs to be retired as a specific reason to avoid chiropractic care."